GET READY TO SOCIALIZE AND LEARN!

The COVID-19 pandemic forced us to look at alternative ways to educate our members, create that vital touch point with our industry sponsors while still finding time to exercise, and squeeze in a little fun. Yes, we made good use of the virtual world, and appreciate it for what it brought to us during these difficult times but enough is enough! We are so excited and waiting with anticipation to see each other for some well-deserved in-person interaction. Saturday, June 18, 2022, can't come soon enough as is our opportunity to gather at the Hyatt Regency Toronto to learn, contribute and share with our friends and colleagues! Register today and get ready to socialize and learn while still being mindful of our current environment. We can't wait to welcome you back, in-person!

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The learning objectives of our 21st Annual Review of DDW and Other Key GI and Liver Meetings are to review the key abstracts published from the 2022 Digestive Disease Week (DDW) and other key GI & Liver meetings content for information regarding new treatment, new research and treatment issues, which will affect your practice.

- Participants will learn about key data in several clinical areas from a variety of the most important GI meetings.
- Participants will learn about and be able to discuss new work in several areas of GI practice.
- Participants will have the opportunity to hear about meetings they could not attend and learn new material that may be incorporated into patient care.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

This event is an accredited group learning activity (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (RCPSC) and approved by the Canadian Association of Gastroenterology.
